A bail in money laundering case

For N K Matta to file a response by August 20 on her regular bail plea.

Poonam appeared before the court on Saturday in pursuance of the summons issued by the judge earlier and moved for bail plea on the ground that she was not arrested during the investigation and there was no requirement for her custody now since the charge sheet has already been filed.

The court also extended an interim bail of two other accused persons Ajit Prasad

Jain and Sunil Kumar Jain in the case as it reserved the order till the next hearing on their regular bail plea.

Both the accused were not arrested in the case.

The court had earlier taken cognisance of a charge sheet against the accused in the case, saying there was prima facie sufficient incriminating evidence about their involvement.

Besides the accused persons, the charge sheet was also filed against four companies - Akinchan Developers Pvt. Ltd.,

Paryas Infosolutions Pvt. Ltd., Manglayatan Developers Pvt. Ltd. and JJ Ideal Estate Pvt. Ltd.

The ED initiated a money laundering investigation on the basis of a First Information Report (FIR) registered by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) on August 24, 2017, under the sections of the Prevention of Corruption Act against Satyendar Jain and others.

The CBI alleged that Satyendar Jain, while holding the office as a minister in the Government of Delhi during the period February 14, 2015, to May 31, 2017, had acquired assets that are disproportionate to his known sources of income.
